NUMB. 3022

TUESDAY NOVEMBER 8. 1743.

Yeſterday arrived a Mail from Holland.

Petersburgh, October 19.

THE Czarina has given Orders that the Marquis de la Chetardie ſhould be received in all Places through which he ſhall paſs in his Journey to this Capital, with the higheſt Marks of Reſpect; the Guns are to be fired at his entering any City, and at his Departure from thence, the Expence of himſelf, and all his Retinue, is to be paid out of the Revenue of the Province; and he is to be furniſhed with Horſes and Carriages throughout his Journey. The Palace of Lowenwold, which is fitted up for his Uſe, is furniſhed to a Degree of Magnificence, almoſt above Deſcription. All the lower Apartments are hung with Velvet, flounced with Gold and Silver Fringe; and the Rooms above Stairs are lined with Chineſe and Perſian Tapeſtry. It is incredible what vaſt Sums have been ſent for this Purpoſe; yet no-body pretends to gueſs what his principal Errand may be; tho' the prevailing Opinion is, that he will propoſe a Match between the Succeſſor to the Crown of Sweden and a Daughter of France; and, for this Reaſon, he is to take the Court of Stockholm in his Way hither. Sir Cyril Wych, his Britannick Majeſty's Miniſter here, has been for ſome time indiſpoſed, but is of late ſomething better. The Jews have tried all their Arts to get Admittance again into this Country, but in vain. The Offer they have made of not only paying a large Sum of Money, but ſubmitting willingly to double Taxes, has had no manner of Effect. The Empreſs, on the contrary, declared, that this very Offer had determined her never to recall that Edict; becauſe it was evident theſe People offer'd ſo much, only with a View to cheat her Subjects more; which ſhe cannot allow on any Terms.

Stockholm, October 29. His Royal Highneſs, the Succeſſor Elect to this Crown, made his Publick Entry into this City on the 27th, with the utmoſt Solemnity. He was alone in one of the King's Coaches, which was followed by 12 other Coaches, filled with his Domeſticks. All the Artillery of this City fired when he had Audience of the King, who received him with the utmoſt Tenderneſs. His Majeſty and his Royal Highneſs dined together, and after Dinner his Royal Highneſs was commented by the Marſhal of the Dyet, and a Committee of the States. In the Evening the City was illuminated, and his Majeſty and his Royal Highneſs came out of the Palace, in order to take a View of thoſe Illuminations in the Streets. The Preſence of his Royal Swediſh Highneſs is not only extremely agreeable to all true Swedes, but it is alſo of infinite Conſequence to this Nation, inaſmuch as it is very likely to put an End to all Diſputes and Factions here, which were grown to a very ſhameful Height, and which, in ſome Northern Provinces, advanced ſo far, that the Regiments raiſed in them, could not forbear declaring, that they would not act againſt the Danes. At preſent, every Body is charm'd with the Looks and Language of the Succeſſor, who, in his Perſon and Garb very much reſembles Charles XII. and is in more like him in his Manners. He eats ſparingly, uſes a great deal of Exerciſe, and applies himſelf aſſiduouſly to the Study of our Language. His Compliment to the King was much taken Notice of. Sire, ſaid he, the Swediſh Nation have appointed me your Succeſſor. I will make it the Buſineſs of my Life to perſuade you, by my Loyalty, Fidelity, and Submiſſion, that you are to be ſucceeded by your Son.

Copenhagen, November 2. The Conferences relating to an Accommodation with Sweden are ſuſpended, till the Return of a Courier who has been diſpatched to Monſieur Rouſouth, his Majeſty's Miniſter at Petersburgh; and who, it is expected, will bring with him a Categorical Anſwer from his Imperial Highneſs the Grand Prince of Ruſſia, in reſpect to his Renunciation of his Pretenſions on the Duchy of Sleſwick, and the Propoſal made of exchanging the Ducal Holſtein for the Counties of Oldenbourg and Delmenhorſt. It is very evident, from the Meaſures purſued by this Court, that if an Accommodation be not brought about in the Winter, we ſhall ſee ſome our Military Preparations in the Spring; and, with this View, 100 freſh Workmen have been order'd to the Yards, that all the Men of War now on the Stocks may be finiſhed, and even launched, before the End of the Year.

Bologna, October 24. Prince Lobkowitz has this Morning advanced as far as Forli; ſome of his Huſſars puſhed to Savignano, which is within two Leagues of Rimini. Upon this Approach, the Spaniards abandon'd the Head of the Bridge which they had there over the Roneo. The Huſſars attacked them in their Retreat, and cut 7 or 800 of them to Pieces. The Count de Gages, as ſoon as he had Notice of this, began to intrench at Rimini; but it is not believed that he will wait there for the Arrival of the Auſtrians, becauſe he has ordered his Cannon to halt that were coming up to him; and therefore it is with great Probability ſuppoſed, that he will retire towards the Kingdom of Naples.

Berlin, November 5. The Earl of Hyndford is ſet out for Hanover, in order to receive the King his Maſter's Inſtructions, in relation to the Negotiations that are at preſent on Foot for reſtoring the Tranquility of the Empire. The Swediſh Lieutenant-General Bonna, who arrived here ſome Days ago from Stockholm, is ſet out again from hence for Paris, in order, as it is ſaid, to execute a private Commiſſion at that Court, of the laſt Importance. They talk very loudly here of an Alliance that will ſpeedily take Place between France, Ruſſia, and Sweden; and it is ſaid, that the Marquis de la Chetardie has Orders to repair to Stockholm, with a View to this great Work. The Baron de Gotter, Miniſter of State and of War, is ſet out lately from hence for Dreſden, in order to execute a Commiſſion of the laſt Conſequence at the Court of his Poliſh Majeſty.

Hague, November 13. The Marquis de St. Gles has lately received a Courier from Madrid, with the News that the Prince of Aſturias is perfectly recovered. The Baron de Reiſchach having received a Courier from Vienna with Diſpatches of the laſt Importance, he order'd him to be ſent away directly to London. Count John Palfi, Palatine of Hungary, has ſent the Queen, his Sovereign, a Liſt of the Men voted by the States of that Kingdom, which amount in the whole to 82,000, for the Service of the next Year.

IRELAND.

Limerick, October 25. Laſt Week died at his Seat of Dromore, in the County of Clare, Charles M'Donnell, Eſq; one of the Burgeſſes of Ennis. He was a Gentleman of an exceeding good Character, and his Death is greatly lamented.

Belfaſt, October 26. A Ship laden with 300 Hogſheads of Tobacco, was forced on ſhore near the Barracks of Carrickfergus, and hath 12 Foot of Water in her Hold. The Crew of the above Ship reports, that a Sloop in Company with them, periſhed on the South and North Rocks of the Lower Ards.

Dublin, October 29. We hear from Dundalk, that Ships trading there have greatly increaſed, but meeting with Obſtruction and Delay by the Crookedneſs of the Channel, going up and down the ſame; and it being repreſented to the Right Hon. the Lord Viſcount Limerick, his Lordſhip, out of tender Regard to the Proſperity of his Tenants, and a publick Diſpoſition to promote the Intereſts of his Country, was pleaſed to order above 500 Men to cut a new Channel, and by working at the ſame for ſome Time paſt, have happily ſucceeded therein, ſo that Ships of conſiderable Burden now have free Acceſs directly to the Key, and out of Port.

Capt. Malone, of the Roſs Sloop, who firſt came up the ſaid new Channel loaded, was preſented with his Freedom of the Corporation, to encourage his reſiding and promoting Trade there.

This Week was ſeized by James Bromlo, George Evans, William Bentley, and Thomas Evans, Watermen at Ringſend, in a ſmall Boat under the Yacht's Counter, a conſiderable Quantity of Gold and Silver Lace in a Box, and a conſiderable Quantity of fine Silk, &c. of great Value.

Yeſterday a Petition of the Governors of the Work-houſe of this City was preſented to the Houſe of Commons, ſetting forth, That by an Act paſs'd in the Third Year of his preſent Majeſty, the Care of Foundling Children was transferr'd to the Corporation of the Governors of the Work-houſe, and a limited Fund appointed for their Maintenance; that the Net Produce of the ſaid Fund, at a Medium for the three laſt Years, during which Time the Income was at the higheſt, amounted only to 1042 l. 19 s. 2 d. yearly; that the Number of Foundlings is greatly increas'd, and there are now upon the Books 700 Children to be maintain'd out of the ſaid Fund; that the annual Charge of maintaining ſo many Children at 2 l. 5 s. each, amounts to 1575 l. and exceeds the annual Fund by 500 l. and upwards; by which Means a Debt of 1519 l. 16 s. 3 d. 3 q. has been contracted on the ſaid Fund; that the Petitioners have no Proſpect of diſcharging the ſaid Debt but by the Aſſiſtance of that honourable Houſe, and praying Relief, was preſented to the Houſe, and refer'd to a Committee.

HOME PORTS.

Briſtol, November 5. 'We have Advice from Biddeford, that a Ship from Virginia was arrived there. She 'is laſt from Ireland, and brings Advice, that the Princeſs Auguſta, Gwynn, from hence for Cork and Jamaica, had cut away all her Maſts, and was ashore on 'the Saltees, between Waterford and Wexford, and, it 'was feared, is beat to Pieces. On Sunday Evening the Lodgings of one Anthony Lovett, of Blackfryers, a Porter, were robb'd of 15 l. and upwards.

Yesterday Jane Webb was committed to Woodstreet Compter by Mr. Alderman Bernard, for stealing a Silver Tankard out of the House of Mr. Dines, at the Angel and Crown in Woodstreet.

As were also James Ford and William Perrimont to Newgate, for being concerned with another Person in stealing a Pewter Dish and two Fowls out of the House of Mr. Parsons, a Vinter in Lombard-street.

Likewise Jane Smith and Anne Wiltshire, were committed to the London Workhouse, being taken in a notorious House in Fleetstreet, swearing and cursing, and committing great Disorders, on Sunday Morning, between Twelve and One o'Clock.

Chances of Tickets in the present State Lottery, entitles the Purchasers to the Prizes that shall be drawn against them; the Cost of which will be but little more than the Third Part of the Price of the Ticket, being free from the Incumbrance of the Blank. Mr. Richard Shergold, Printer to the Hon. the Commissioners of the present Lottery, at his Office in Pope's-Head Alley, over-against the Royal Exchange, Cornhill, will accommodate any Person with a Chance of One, or as many Tickets as they please, at a proportionable Price as the Tickets from time to time, shall be sold in the Market. The said Richard Shergold doth in the present Lottery (as he did in the former Lotteries, and much to the Satisfaction of many Adventurers) sell the first Ticket that shall be drawn up out of two Tickets, or any larger Number of them, considerably cheaper than the current Price of the Tickets, tho' they are equally entitled to the Prizes attending them. For further Information, enquire at the Office above-mention'd; where Tickets, Shares of Tickets, and Shares of Chances, are bought and sold, and all other Lottery Business transacted in a correct Manner.

N. B. The Lottery begins Drawing the 21st Inst.

At Lowe and Berry's State-Lottery Office, which is most conveniently situated from the Noise and Interruption of the Publick Streets, in Stationers-Alley, Ludgate-street; where their Business has been transacted for several Years, with uncommon Success; Tickets, and Chances, in the present Lottery, are sold, and divided into Shares, in the cheapest and most accurate Manner, to the Satisfaction of every Adventurer. A Register-Book will be kept in the same correct and nice Manner as in former Lotteries; wherein any Persons entering their Numbers, shall have an immediate Account sent of their Success in Town or Cuntry.

N. B. The Lottery will begin Drawing on Monday the 21st Instant.

Whereas many Persons are desirous of becoming Adventurers in the present State-Lottery, to whom it may not be so convenient to purchase whole Tickets, or Chances of whole Tickets, as to be only concerned in the Chances for Prizes. This is to acquaint the Publick, that Francis Wilson, at the State Lottery-Office, Charing-Cross, directly behind the King on Horseback, will dispose of Chances for the whole Drawing at 6 l. 10 s. cheaper than the Market-Price of Tickets; by which Method, the Purchaser will be equally entitled to the Chances of the Prizes, as if possessed of the whole Tickets. The said Francis Wilson will also dispose of the Shares at the following Prices; viz.

	l.	s.	d.
Half a Ticket, at ———	2	10	0
Quarters, ——— ———	1	5	0
Eighths, ——— ———	0	13	0
Sixteenths, ——— —	0	6	6

The whole Tickets are there sold at the Market Price, and carefully register'd. The Lottery will begin Drawing the 21st of November next.
